EUROPE.

An Austrian Invasion of Bosnia and Herzgovina Threatened---Troops Hurrying to Malta---The Point at Issue Becoming More Distinct.

LONDON, April 30.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent says he hears on good authority that an Austrian invasion of Bosnia and Herzgovina is imminent, and that Italy has decided to make a descent on the Albanian coast.

A despatch to the same paper from Woolwich says that two batteries of artillery there are under orders to be in readiness to proceed to Malta.

Gathorne Hardy, at Broadford last night, spoke in a very determined tone. He said he believed England could send 70,000 men abroad at this moment; that England was no longer a small Island, but a vast empire, having the right to draw trustworthy defenders from all parts of the Empire. He knew nothing which gratified him so much as when lately he received at the war office offers from Canada, to raise regiments, and he believed the same heart was beating in all the colonies as at home. Referring to the San Stefano treaty, he said there was danger that if one power was able to dominate, and use another without actually annexing her, the English and European interests might suffer, and a state of civilization and humanity would be brought about very different from the civilization of England. A durable peace for Europe, he said, could not be secured by the destruction of all which had been solemnly ratified by all Europe, or by the predominance of one power; that it was to secure durable peace that the government were seeking entrance into a congress where views might be freely heard upon every question affecting the treaties of 1856 and 1871, and that they looked to the people to enable them to speak with the force and decision which would give effect to their aims.

A Reuter telegram from Bombay announces that the first detachment of troops has sailed, and a number of fresh regiments are waiting. The expedition takes stores for five months.

The Manchester Guardian's Vienna correspondent telegraphs to that journal as follows: "The Hamburg American Packet Company's steamship "Cimbria," which has been chartered by the Russian government, has taken a contingent of forty officers and five hundred seamen, and started to cruise on the Chinese and Japanese coasts."

The first contingent to be dispatched from this country to Malta will number 5,000 men, and two batteries of artillery, all of which are under orders for embarkation.

The torpedo service promises all that is desired. Messrs. John J. Thornycraft & Co., will soon have ready five or six of twenty torpedo launches they are building, and other firms are making extraordinary efforts towards the completion of the government orders for launches. Portland will be the rendezvous for the ships now preparing to form the fleet for channel and north sea coast guard, and the turret ships will proceed there as soon as they are ready.

Considerable excitement seems have to been produced in Berlin by the announcement that an English fleet is being fitted out for eventual operations in the Baltic. The idea expressed in a Berlin letter printed in the Vienna Mortags Revue, that it is hardly to be expected that a foreign fleet would make its appearance in the Baltic against the wish of Germany, is declared to be an eccentric theory which is repudiated by the German government in view of the present critical state of affairs.

The Customs' authorities are understood to have been instructed to exercise special vigilance in the examination of export cargoes to prevent contraband of war leaving the country.

A Bombay despatch says. The Begum of Bhopoul has offered his whole available force for service abroad.

Some consolation for the prolongation of the efforts to preserve peace is found in the fact that the point at issue is becoming gradually more distinct. That point is whether Russia will recognize that the rights of the great powers as established by the treaties of 1856 and 1871—take precedence of the claims of the treaty of San Stefano.

The Political news from the continent, though contradictory and conveying but an imperfect idea of what the future may be, is looked upon favorably.

In the stock markets, prices opened at a general improvement. Consols and Russians shared in the advance.

Forty-Fifth Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. D., April 30.—The President pro tem laid before the Senate a number of bills from the House of Representatives, among them the Senate bill to repeal the bankrupt law with amendments thereto, agreed to by the House.

Merrimon of North Carolina moved to refer the bill and amendment to the Judiciary committee.

Beck of Kentucky objected and demanded the yeas and nays. He thought the house amendment should be acceded to and the bill passed.

Conkling of New York favored the reference and said in this body any committee could report at any time therefore there would be no loss by the reference.

Beck opposed the reference upon the ground that if any good was to grow out of the passage of the bill the sooner it pass the better. All sorts of fraudulent petitions were now being filed by persons taking advantage of this bankrupt law before its repeal.

HOUSE.—The bill for the relief of the settlers on the lands claimed by the North and South Alabama rail road was reported from the committee on public lands after a sharp debate. Referred to the committee of the whole.

The committee of ways and means to-day by a vote of eight against three decided to report to the house the following joint resolution, whereas, on the first day of April, 1878, there had been paid into the sinking fund as provided for under section 3,694 of the revised statutes, the sum of $24,148,916—834 in excess of the requirements of said law, which sum is equivalent to about eight years in advance of the amount required by law, and whereas, it is unnecessary for the maintainance of the public credit as it is unjust to the people, to continue the imposition of taxes for the object at a time of great depression like the present, therefore be it enacted, &c., that the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to suspend the purchase of United States bonds for the sinking fund, as provided by section 3,694 of the revised statutes, until the close of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1885, unless otherwise directed by Congress.

House Committee on patents, agreed to take up for consideration on Tuesday May seventh, the application of Frederick Cook, for an extension of his patent for open sleet cotton tie buckle. The application is endorsed by the leading cotton press associations throughout the South.

HOUSE.—In consideration of the legislative appropriation bill to-day, an amendment for the appropriation of $185,000 for the re-establishment of the New Orleans Mint, was offered by Gibson, of Louisiana, and was advocated by Stephens, of Georgia, Butler, of Massachusetts, and Garfield, of Ohio, but by a combination of members who want the establishment of branch mints in other localities, the amendment was rejected by a vote of 71 to 96.

Among the nominations was Jam s Cochran, Postmaster at Culpepper, Va. Commodore Wyman is to be Rear Admiral in the navy.

The Committee on Military Affairs agreed to report favorably on the House bill placing Gen. Shields on the retired list without amendment, the members reserving the right to oppose the bill or offer amendments when the bill comes up for action in the Senate.

SENATE.—The Bankrupt bill was laid aside.

The Finance Committee reported adversely on Mr. Beck's concurrent resolution declaring it inexpedient to levy taxes at this time to maintain the sinking fund. The committee was discharged from its further consideration. In submitting the report Mr. Morrell said the law as it now stood provided for the sinking fund and could not be repealed by concurrent resolution.

A half dozen amendments to the Bankrupt bill were voted down, and without final action the Senate adjourned.

WORLEY MURDER TRIAL.

Arraignment of the Prisoners---Opening the Case---The State's Witness.

[Special by telegraph to the News.]

GOLDSBORO, N. C., April 30.

The court met at the usual hour this morning. Hon. W. T. Dortch opened for the State, in a somewhat lengthy speech. He said: "We are about to enter upon one of the most important cases that has ever occurred in the State or county. I caution you to be careful, and not give your verdict against the prisoners at the bar, unless proved to be guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. A peaceable citizen has been murdered, and his wife violated."

Mr. Dortch exhibited two diagrams to the jury, locating the scene of the murder, and the routes taken by the defendants, and explained them. The facts he expected to prove in the premises and the details of the horrible murder.

The first witness called was Jerry Cox, whose testimony was simply a repetition of the statements heretofore published in the NEWS. He underwent a rigid cross-examination by the defendants counsel, but made no material violation. He went on the stand at four and closed his testimony at six, when the court adjourned until Wednesday, at nine o'clock.

Strange Movements of a Russian Ship.

SOUTHWEST HARBOR, ME., April 30.—About 7 o'clock on Sunday morning the steamer "Cambria," of Hamburg, one of the Hamburg-American line, arrived at this place. According to Captain Badenheusen's statement, she is chartered by an agent of the Russian government. She proceeded to a Baltic port in Russia, and there took on board 600 men, mostly Finns and steerage passengers, and sixty-three men as cabin passengers. She sailed from the Baltic port April 26th, and passed around the north of Scotland. Captain Badenheusen was under the orders of one of the cabin passengers, and when off Cape Sabecas he shaped his course for Cape Cod; he was then directed to lay his course for Southwest Harbor. He has no cargo only ship stores, and he is now lying here waiting for orders. He professes utter ignorance of the destination of the vessel or men. No person has been ashore except Captain Badenheusen and the gentleman in charge. The latter has the bearing of a Naval officer, and is a Russian. The Collector of the port has not yet boarded the ship, and no other person has been allowed on board. The ship is full of men and keeps steam up continually.

ELSWORTH, ME., April 30.—The passengers on board the steamer "Cambria," at Southwest Harbor, prove to be a regularly-organized ship's company of sixty officers and 600 seamen of the Russian Imperial Navy, under the command of Count Griefenberg. On her arrival a long despatch in cypher was sent to Admiral Lessowsky, at St. Petersburg, and the officers seem to be awaiting the reply. The ship has a large amount of stores on board, including coal for ten days' steaming. No arms nor ammunition are visible, and the officers of the steamer deny that there are any such on board. The officers and crew of the steamer number 110, and are all Germans.

Failures.

CLEVELAND, O., April 30.—James L. McClury, a coal dealer, has failed. Liabilities, $100,000.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Benj. Wood has failed for a quarter of a million dollars.

Daniel J. Kennedy has failed for a half million dollars.

Theodore Reed has failed for $2,000.

Michael Norton has failed for $50,000.

U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—In the Supreme Court No. 170, the New York Life Insurance Company, plaintiff in error vs. John W. & T. A. Eggleston, administrators in error, to the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Mississippi, judgment was affirmed with costs and interest. Opinion by Mr. Justice Bradley. The court decided that a failure to pay premiums on life insurance policies, when there is no local agent to receive them, does not invalidate the policy.

A Cashier Short.

URBANA, OHIO, April 30.—Mat Weaver, the cashier of the Citizens' National Bank, is short $46,000. The stockholders made the amount good, and the bank goes on.

WILSON.

A Beautiful and Prosperous Town---Social, Political and Railroad Items.

(Correspondence of the News.)

WILSON, April 29, '78.

Less than thirty years ago this beautiful and thriving town was an insignificant way station on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, in the county of Edgecombe, twenty-four miles North of Goldsboro, and was then known as Toisnot depot, and contained fifty inhabitants.

Wilson is the county seat of Wilson county, the town, now almost a city, is laid out in broad streets, prettily planted with trees, which, at this, the loveliest season of the year, makes the place very attractive.

The country about Wilson is unexcelled for its fine large farms, all nicely cultivated, splendid roads and elegant residences. In the town many of the residences are of the latest architectural design, very commodious; and they present such a comfortable, homelike appearance, surrounded as they are by beautiful trees, green lawns and flowers, in endless variety.

Among the handsome residences worthy of special mention, (we cannot name all in this letter,) we notice the homes of A. Branch, Esq., a prominent merchant; Frank W. Barnes, President 1st National Bank of Wilson; Capt. H. G. Whitehead, Moses Rountree, one of the leading merchants in North Carolina; Capt. John T. Barnes, Geo. D. Green, Esq., Wiley Daniel, E. Rosenthal, (a lovely place,) J. T. Gardnar, James S. Woodard, Maj. W. M. Goy, S. M. Warren, and Capt. Hines, of Branch, Hadley & Co. There are others which shall have our attention hereafter.

THE BUSINESS.

Wilson is one of the most thriving commercial towns in Eastern North Carolina. During the past season, twenty thousand bales of cotton have been shipped from this point, to say nothing of the heavy trade in other products, especially Naval stores, trucking fruits, &c. There are many elegant business houses to which we shall refer in the future.

POPULATION, ETC.

The population of Wilson in round numbers reaches 2,700. We cannot say too much in behalf of the citizens. A more hospitable, moral and generous people do not live in our good old North State. The town government consists of a mayor and five commissioners, and only two policemen. The Mayor told us some days ago that during the past year he had heard only forty cases, nearly all of a trivial character. Wilson is a bad place for tramps, and idlers, especially loafing, good-for-nothing negroes.

THE SCHOOLS.

We cannot do justice to the excellent schools located here. There are two leading institutions of learning,—one under the supervision of Prof. Sylvester Hassell, A. M., the other in charge of Prof. J. B. Brewer.

CHURCHES, &C.

There are four churches: Primitive Baptist, Methodist Episcopal, Missionary Baptist, and Protestant Episcopal There are also two houses of worship for colored people.

POLITICS.

Wilson county, and the town are Democratic by large majorities. Could they be otherwise? Wilson is the home of our efficient Attorney General Kenan, Col. Henry G. Williams, the faithful Senator during the last session of our State Legislature; General Barnes, Col. R. W. Singletary, G. W. Blount, Esq., and a number of others—all true and tried Democrats.

On Thursday of last week the County Executive Committee assembled to a ree upon some plan of selecting candidates for the election in August next. After a very harmonious meeting "the delegate plan" was carried by a large majority. And delegates will be elected in the different townships on Saturday 18th day of May.

The Democratic county convention will be held in Wilson on Wednesday, the 22d of May.

THE CANDIDATES

For the Senate the names of H. G. Connor, a prominent and rising member of the legal fraternity and Dr. R. W. King, a gentleman well known throughout the State are prominently mentioned. Col. Henry G. Williams positively declines the nomination. Mr. "G" as he is called by everybody is one of the most popular men in Eastern North Carolina.

For the House of Representatives the names of Washington Barnes, and Dr. D.G. W. Ward have been brought forward.

For Sheriff, the present incumbent, Augustus Barnes, Esq., James Crowell, of Toisnot, and Col. G. W. Singletary, are prominently mentioned.

For Clerk H. C. Moss, present incumbent; and Thos. C. Davis, Esq., both good men.

For Register of Deeds, we are told that F. T. Rowe, now in the office, and M. T. Edwards will come before the convention.

For Solicitor of the Judical District of which Wilson is a part. Our young friend Hugh F. Murray, Esq., is mentioned and with fine prospect of success. Mr. Murray is a an excellent lawyer and a popular man.

During our brief visit to Wilson we have been the recipient of many kind favors. We are the guest of Col. J. T. S. Young, proprietor of the Briggs House.

Wilson is noted for its beautiful ladies, and gallant young men, for fine horses and elegant equipages. It has been our pleasure to enjoy delightful rides behind some of the best stock here. We are especially indebted to Capt. Sam T. Waters, a gentleman well and favorably known in Raleigh, the owner of Sally Patchen now one of the fastest animals in the State, for a regular tour of the town on Tuesday last, also to G. D. Green, Esq., for a pleasant drive on Thursday following.

In closing this random letter from Wilson, we must not fail to mention the W. & W. R. R.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the Stockholders to look into the condition of the road, performed that duty on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

The committee was accompanied by the President, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, and the very efficient Superintendent, Capt. John F. Divine. The road, under the enlightened management of President Bridgers and his able corps of assistants, was in magnificent condition, surpassing in its equipments all the roads of the South.

As to its freight tariff from Wilson, we shall have more to say in our next letter. Fox.

HALIFAX COUNTY.

Heavy Hail Storm---Desperate Attempt to Break Jail.

(Correspondence of the News.)

WELDON, N. C., April 29, 1878.

There was quite a hail storm here yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The cloud was small, but more and larger hail fell than I have seen since the great storm of June 8th, 1860. The hail stones yesterday were from a half to five-eighths of an inch in diameter; the ground was not entirely covered, but was pretty well strewn, and in places where it gathered in heaps it could have been measured by the bushel. Happily, the storm extended over a very limited space, and there was but little cotton up for it to injure.

Halifax jail contains at this time some ten or fifteen prisoners, among whom are some desperate characters, two of of them, Dave Peebles and Bob Johnson, especially so. Last Saturday night they broke to pieces the glass in their windows, and with the pieces sawed through their shackles; they then proceeded to break through a partition of four inch oak plank. Upon being discovered, and ordered to desist, they refused, and scouted the idea of submission. A strong guard of men, armed with double-barreled guns loaded with buck shot, surrounded the jail, and Sheriff Larkin was sent for. Upon his arrival, accompanied by a blacksmith with irons, some of them utterly refused to be manacled again, and for a while it looked as if some of the mutineers would have to be shot. Sheriff Larkin, however, by great firmness, coupled with forbearance, without having to resort to extreme measures, brought them to submission, put them in irons, and confined the worst characters in separate cells. The parties are all negroes, and Bob Johnson, the most desperate of the gang, hails from Richmond. C.

David Coleman for the Supreme Court.

To the Editor of the News:

SIR:—It being conceded, I believe, that one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court will be taken from the West, and knowing the estimation in which Col. David Coleman stands in this part of the State, I trust the East and middle sections of the State will unite upon him and give North Carolina a Supreme Court Judge that is the peer of any man in this nation; knowing his great ability, pure and spotless character. One who would give more dignity to the position and honor to the State, probably, than any man from the mountains to the sea. I present his name for the consideration of every county in North Carolina, and feel sure that if they will take the trouble to know who he is as he is known at home, that there will not be a dissenting voice to his nomination. He is a nephew of that pure, true and tried old hero, Judge and statesman, Gov. Swain, and possesses all his noble characteristics. There is nothing in him to "drive the Driver case," to commend the honor of a Bond, or sanction the punishment as just and right of a brother North Carolinian who had been made the victim of Radical spleen and spite. No! he is fit to be a Judge, even of the Supreme Court of the United States.

A MEMBER OF THE WESTERN BAR.

Clever Men at Thirty-Three.

(From the Pall Mall Gazette, April 8)

The Spectator, in an article on the Ministerial changes, speaks—in a complimentary connection, it must be said—of Lord George Hamilton as among the "boys" whom Loard Beaconsfield takes trouble to find out. Lord George Hamilton is, no doubt, still a young man, and has made his way in public life rapidly enough; but it ought to be remembered that he has sat in the House of Commons as member for Middlesex nearly ten years. He is now thirty-three; and at that age men of average capacity are not usually boys. There are abundant instances of statesmen who at thirty-three have been leaders of parties and rulers of kingdoms. The younger Pitt a thirty-three had governed England as Premier for ten years with eminent success and had engaged in his great struggle with the revolution in France. At thirty-three, Mr. Gladstone, as a Privy Councillor and President of the Board of Trade, was the chief exponent and interpreter of Sir Robert Peel's commercial policy in the House of Commons. At thirty-three, M. Gambetta, after conducting the war of the National Defense with an energy and devotion which extorted the admiration of his enemies, had returned to France and taken his place in the Assembly at Versailles as the leader of the advanced Republican party. There is no reason, then, in the nature of things, why Lord George Hamilton at thirty three should not make an efficient successor to Lord Sandon, in spite of his consignment to the "category" of "boys" by the Spectator.

Grant on our Generals.

A correspondent who accompanied Grant in his voyage in the Mediterranean, says while on the Vandalia, Grant discussed the war and gave his opinions of his opponents most liberally. He looked upon General Joseph E. Johnston as the ablest on the Southern side. Lee, he says, had a splendid genius and thoroughly understood the theory of war, but he was not so able in practice. Jackson, he considered the most overrated man of the war. These opinions will, I am sure, be counter to those of the future historians. Already Shiebert, of the Royal Prussian Engineers, has shown what a host "Stonewall" was and how his chieftain felt his loss.

The Paris International Literary Congress, which holds its meetings from from the 6th to the 15th of June, will discuss the legal position of literary copyright, the insufficiency of diplomatic treaties for its protection, the position of authors at the present time, a scheme for an international literary treaty by which the copyrights of all authors shall be as secure in foreign countries as in their own, and a plan for the improvement of the condition of authors in different countries.

Suits Compromised.

NEWARK, N. J., April 30.—Civil suits against the late stockholders of the New Jersey Mutual Life Insurance Company to recover $200,000 was settled to-day, and the prosecution withdrawn. It is understood that they pay $120,000 in full of all demands.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

Railroad Affairs---Local Politics---Congressional Contingencies---Senenck and Shotwell---Honor to the Confederate Dead.

(Correspondence of the News.)

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., April 27, '78.

The regular annual meeting of the Western Railroad, was held in the Town Hall, Tuesday, April 25th, 1878. Geo. M. Rose, Esq., in the chair.

The President and Secretary submitted their reports. The President stated since his last reports that funds had been procured to prosecute the survey, and that he had also secured the 100 convicts allowed the road by the last Legislature, and that they were actively engaged in grading the road, and so far the progress made was very encouraging.

During the meeting resolutions were offered to consolidate with the Mt. Airy Road. The object of these resolutions as the introducer stated was thus. The Mt. Airy Road is as yet only a projected road, although they have pledged, in solvent subscriptions, sixty thousand dollars, and by the provisions of its charter the State will furnish convicts to grade the road; provided, the road will feed and clothe the convicts and pay the guard. Now by consolidation with the Western Road to which the State furnishes convicts free. The same force could be used on both roads. The resolutions elicited a warm and spirited discussion and were finally defeated. Greensboro was definitely settled upon as the terminus of the road.

The next business was the election of President and Directors with the following result:

Jno. D Williams, E J Lilly, A P Hurt, A A McKethan and Dr. Jas. A McRae on the part of the stockholders; the State through its representative Col. J H Gilmer of Greensboro named the following Directors on the part of the State: C P Mendenhall, D F Caldwell, of Greensboro; Dr. John M Worth, of Randolph, and L J Haughton of Chatham. The first named gentlemen are men of railroad reputation and experience; and it is to be hoped that they will with the other Directors put their shoulders to the wheel, make one superhuman effort to build this much-desired road, which when built we trust will quicken and renew the relaxed energies of the people, and restore at least a portion of the wonted prosperity of the old and historic town of Fayetteville.

POLITICS.

The political warfare is not fully opened yet, but still candidates are numerous, seeking the support of the dear people.

There are several candidates for the Solicitorship of this Fourth Judicial District, all of which are confident of success. Cumberland county has two candidates for the position. R S Huske, Esq., and Capt. Benjamin Robinson, both young men of talent, either of whom would, I think, fill the office acceptably to the people of the District. We have, as yet, only heard of three aspirants for Congressional honors, Col. A. M. Waddell, the present very acceptable representative, is a candidate for re-election, also Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, of Wilmington, a prominent lawyer of that city, and a man of decided ability; but lastly, but not least, our own worthy townsman, and present State Senator, W. C. Troy Esq., whose claims will be urged before the convention, and from present indications, his prospects are brightening every day.

The Democrats of the town made nominations for Mayor and Commissioners on Friday night last, with W. E. Kyle, Esq., leading the board. The Radicals will not put out a straight ticket, but there are parties here who run on what they call an Independent Ticket, and at the same time claim to be Democrats; but their ticket is supported by the entire Republican vote of the town

Have heard of no candidates for the Legislature.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The recent attacks through the press of "P. B. M." on Capt. Randolph A. Shotwell in defence of Mr. Schenck, have been read with surprise, and I think that Capt. Shotwell has the sympathy of the entire people, and his replies or clinchers as they are called here, peel the skin every time. Judge Schenck, I think, would do a wise thing to withdraw entirely from the contest. This county will, I have do doubt, cast her entire strength for that pure and polished gentleman, Hon. W. N. H. Smith, believing him to be the one for the exalted position of Chief Justice.

MEMORIAL CELEBRATION.

The 10th of May will be observed here as usual; the Independent and La Fayette Light Infantries participateing. The address will be made by Rev. F. W. Eason, the present able and elegant pastor of the Baptist Church. C.

"They May be Happy Yet."

BERLIN, April 30.—It is understood that the ceremony of the betrothal of the Duke of Connaught, the seventh child and third son of Queen Victoria, to the Princess Louise, third daughter of Prince Frederick Charles, of Prussia, will occur at Darmstadt, on the 9th of May.

Another Riot in Toronto.

TORONTO, ONT., April 30.—While the Orange, Young Britons and Friends were returning from a concert at Point St. Charles last night, they were assaulted by a mob of several hundred Catholic Unionists. Mrs. Meehan received four bullet wounds in the leg. Corporal Tang, of the Prince of Wales Rifles, also received bullet wounds. Two Union men are reported shot, one is dangerously wounded in the head.

MEMORIAL DAY IN GEORGIA.

Jefferson Davis Writes a Letter on the Late War.

In a letter to the Memorial Association of Macon, in response to an invitation to deliver an address, Jefferson Davis says: "Let not any of the survivors impugn their faith by offering the penitential plea that they believed they were right. Let posterity learn by this monument that you commemorate men who died in a defensive war; that they did not, as has been idly stated, submit to the arbitrament of arms the questional issue—questions involving inalienable rights, inherited and held in trust for posterity, but they strove for the State sovereignty which their fathers left them, and which it was their duty if possible to transmit to their children. Let this monument teach that heroism derives its lustre from the justice of the cause in which it is displayed, and let it mark the difference between a war waged for the robber-like purpose of conquest and one to repel invasion, to defend a people's hearths and altars, and to maintain their laws and liberties. Such was the war in which our heroes fell and theirs is the crown which sparkles with the gems of patriotism and righteousness with a glory undimmed by any motive of aggrandizement or intent to inflict ruin on others. We present them to posterity as examples to be followed, and wait securely for the verdict of mankind, when knowledge shall have dispelled misrepresentation and delusion. It is not unreasonable to hope that mature reflection, and a closer study of the political history of the Union may yet restore the rights prostrated by the passions developed in our long and bloody war. If, however, it should be otherwise:

"Then from our heroes graves shall come,
In mournful tones the answer fit—
And if our children must obey
They must; but thinking on our day
'Twill less debase them to submit."

A MURDER SENSATION IN NORFOLK.

A telegram from Norfolk, Va., April 26, says: During the latter part of the late war J B Weeks came here with an Ohio regiment as sutler. He remained here when his regiment was disbanded and has since been proprietor of a barroom and restaurant in a disreputable neighborhood, which was a resort of vicious and degraded characters. He was the largest man in the city, weighing nearly 400 pounds, and was generally known as "Fatty" Weeks. He died from excessive fat on the 27th of March last. To-day Mrs. Julia C Whitington appeared before Mayor Tucker and swore to a statement to the following effect: "About a week before Weeks died he told her he had a secret to disclose; and she must promise not to make his disclosure public until after his death. She promised, and he then told her he and another man got possession of a large amount of money from drunken gamblers; that they were murdered and buried on the premises he then occupied: that the accomplice died very suddenly a short time afterwards, leaving the money at his disposal, and that he did not dare to use any of the ill-gotten gains, and secreted it. He furthermore stated that to the best of his knowledge there were five bodies buried on the premises. Weeks told Mrs. Whittington to wait four weeks after his death and then go to the Mayor of the city and disclose the secret to his honor, and that in all probability she would get one-third of the money, which would be enough for her." As soon as this statement was sworn to Mayor Tucker sent a sergeant of police with a detail of the chain-gang to the premises, No. 71 Church street, which had been occupied by Weeks; the floor was taken up and the ground dug up to the depth of four feet, but no traces of human remains were found. Further search will be made to-morrow. Dark stories are told of drugged sailors in this den since the war, and it is now said one of Weeks' pals in dying begged to have a priest attend him, but he was closely guarded, and no spiritual adviser was allowed to visit his death-bed.

WADDELL.

Endorsed by a Large Concourse of His Fellow Citizens---Declares Himself a Candidate for Congress.

(Correspondence of the News.)

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 29, 1878.

To-night the friends of Col. A. M. Waddell assembled at his residence in this city to do him honor and get an expression of his views. He is here on a two days visit to his family and friends. Serenaded by the Cornet Club, and some thousand of his fellow citizens, he made a capital speech in which he thoroughly defended himself from covert charges.

Your correspondent tried to get a despatch to the NEWS, but your telegraph officer has such nursery-like hours it was impossible. The operators had closed the office and gone to bed!

Col. Waddell told his hearers he had no banks, newspapers, capitalists &c., at his back, but he hoped for justice at the hands of the people. He made some sharp thrusts in self-defence, but in the main the speech was pacific. He is strong in the hearts of the Cape Fear Democrats. Ward meetings take place to-morrow night, at which, delegates to the County Convention, to be held here on Saturday, will be elected.

Col. Waddell seems the very picture of good health, and is in excellent spirits. He will start for New York to-morrow night, where he is to address five thousand ex-Federal soldiers on the fine theme of the Confederate soldiers. CAPE FEAR.

The Man on Horseback.

A. C. Buell, one of the most brilliant of Washington journalists, thinks that Grant will be nominated in 1880, and will be counted in and inaugurated.

"I have never been able to believe that a party which it took four years of desperate war to fix firmly in the seats of power is going to evacuate on any such trifle as one day of unfavorable voting. I look for Grant to be inaugurated on the 4th of March, 1881, as the price of that peace, which is just as dear to Democratic millionaires as it is to their Republican confreres. The alternative of Grant or revolution will be presented, and I do not believe there is revolutionary spirit left in the country sufficient to prevent the tamest submission to the alternative of the red-faced man, who, whatever else may be said of him, certainly has the virtues of courage, of fidelity to his friends, and of confidence in himself."

The following resolutions were adopted, viz:

FAYETTEVILLE, April 26, 1878.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Western Railroad Company, elected in general meeting on yesterday, present, L. C. Jones, President, and all the members of the Board.

All the officers and appointees usually made by the Directors were reappointed for the ensuing year.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Chief Engineer of this company be instructed to make a survey of the line of country leaving the line of the present survey not far from Elkins, crossing Big Brush Creek below Marley's Mills, (at such point as may be found most practicable) connecting with the route already surveyed at some point east of Columbia factory, and report the cost of the construction of the road to an adjourned meeting of this Board at Franklinsville, as soon as the survey and estimates can be made, of which the President and Chief Engineer shall give due notice to each member of this Board; and it is further ordered and authorized that the Chief Engineer make such other surveys, in addition to those already made, between the Deep River country and Greensboro, that he may deem necessary.

Resolved, That the Chief Engineer be authorized, under the approval of the resident Directors, to construct a bridge across Deep River, and make preparations to extend the track of the road to or near the Gulf, as soon as advisable.

Resolved, That the action of the general meeting of the stockholders, looking to the union of the line of this road, with the Mount Airy Railroad Company, meets with the hearty approval of this Directory, who appreciate the high importance of the extension of this road to the Blue Ridge, whereby old lines of trade and social intercourse may be speedily restored, and the rebuilding of our home market secured—and we pledge to our Western and mountain section our earnest efforts to obtain an early, permanent, and advantageous union of lines that shall bring success to these desirable ends.

Homicide in Tyrrell.

(From the N. Y. Herald.)

NORFOLK, VA., April 28, 1878.

In Tyrrell county, North Carolina, the day before yesterday, James E. Graves was instantly killed by J. W. Rhoades, of the same county. It seems that the two parties found a small boat adrift, with no owner, and Rhoades refused to give Graves an interest in it, whereupon they commenced a dispute. Word for word followed, until at last Rhoades struck Graves on the head with a club that he had with him driving down net stakes, which instantly caused death. Rhoades was arrested and lodged in jail to await trial.

A Narrow Guage Project.

CHATHAM CO., N. C., April 25, 1878.

To the Editor of the News:

SIR:—Your valuable paper being ever ready to promote any cause, that may bring material prosperity to the people of this State. I therefore beg leave to bring before your capitalist and business men of Raleigh and citizens of some dozen or more counties, to a Rail Road project, which can be and ought to be built without delay. You have published several communications in regard to a Narrow Guage from Raleigh connecting with some other lines in the East to tide water, at or near Plymouth, via Raleigh, Chapel Hill, Bynum Factory on Haw River, Franklinville, Ashbon &c., to Salisbury, which would there connect with the only road belonging to the State. The distance would only be about 200 miles. A Narrow Guage road could be built and put into operation for $7,000 per mile. 7. Rail 25 lbs per yard, spikes, Bars, Bolts and Ties including freight and putting down would not exceed $3,000 per mile, and the grading, bridging &c., would not exceed $4,000, a large portion of the route would cost much less. This is the plan I propose. To carry the project into successful operation, let the State furnish convict labor to do all the grading and masonry, and take the same in stock, then 200 citizens or firms subscribe the money necessary to equip one mile each. I will be one to guarantee the superstructure for one mile, and I feel confident that Raleigh and the wealthy counties through which this road would pass, have more than 200 men or firms that can subscribe $3,000 for the above purpose. Then we would have what could truly be called a North Carolina work. I want to see one road completed in this State and all paid for. Besides a road built as above indicated, would be the best paying road in North Carolina. Yours. J. W. S.

Ben. Taylor, a colored citizen of Rosedale, Miss., has invented a rotary engine.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, is to deliver the address at the Confederate memorial services to be held in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore, in the first week of June.

Fanny McGuire, a white girl, eloped from Houston, Texas, with Walter Denning, a negro employed by her father. After the marriage ceremony they went to live in a hut in the negro quarter of the city. The girl's conduct was amazing, because she was educated pretty and had stood well socially. Denning was arrested on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons and while in jail was shot to death by a mob.

Houston, (Tex.) Telegram: The woods of North Texas are full of detectives, scouts, rangers, ancient and modern warriors, doughty heroes, and militia beating up the train robbers, who are doubtless the most active among them. Denton county has been thoroughly explored, bramble, bush, crag and plain, and ineffectually. A. Pinkerton, lieutenant, with a squad; Major Jones, of the Texas Rangers, with many leaders of local note, are on the ground, scouting, prying, theorizing and investigating every rumor and breath of evidence they can get hold of. They have made no arrests yet, for the reason they have obtained nothing upon which to warrant one.

The San Antonia Express says that W. Harley, Esq., agent of the Merchants' Trading Company of Liverpool, has just arrived in that city for the purpose of completing arrangements to ship Texas cattle and sheep to England. Vessels are to be built which will carry one thousand head of cattle and the same number of sheep, to be furnished with corn mills, hay cutters and good water supply. As cattle just taken from grass will not bear long shipment, the company will establish a feeding ranche somewhere in Western Texas, where they will be fed on corn and chopped feed until their flesh has gained sufficient solidity to bear shipment. The cattle will be sent by rail to Galveston, and thence by steamer to Barrow, England, where the company has large slaughter-houses.

STATE NEWS.

R. E. Harden is a candidate for the nomination for Register of Deeds for the Democratic party, in Chatham county.

Bakersville Republican: A new town is to be laid off and built, in Grassy Creek Township, and an effort will be made hereafter to move the county seat. The name of the new town is Need More.

Rockingham South: It is said that the ghost of Jerry Everett is occasionally to be seen in the lane beyond Mr. W. B. Cole's, where the poor fellow was so horribly butchered last July. We haven't seen the ghost ourself, but have conversed, with those who claim to have seen it, and whose veracity is unquestionable.

Statesville American: The Federal Court, Judge Dick, has been in session here the past and present week, the business of which will be finished up by Friday. The time of the Court chiefly has been occupied by the trial of cases for violation of the Revenue law—whiskey and tobacco. The South Mountain, Burke county, cases were remanded to Greensboro before Judge Bond.

Monroe Express: The postoffice at this place is to be made a money-order office. Service will commence the first of July next.....The shoe shop of Mr. Joel Horne, near Long Pine, in Anson county, was burned down a few nights ago. It was first robbed and then burned, and we learn that suspicion is directed against several white men as being the perpetrators of the deed.

Lincoln Progress: The murder case of Mr. A. R. Black was moved to Gaston county and will be tried week after next. His counsel asked for a removal on the ground that public opinion was so prejudiced against the defendant in this county that he could not have a fair trial. Pinkney Pendleton, who was arrested as an accomplice, will be used as a witness in the case, and was required to give a bond of three hundred dollars for his appearance at Court.

Reidsville Times: We learn that at the last Roxboro court, Judge McKoy and one of the lawyers rather tangled on a point of law, but so politely and with such finished etiquette that the lawyer insisted in writing all his questions down, and as the jury felt a little cramped from sitting so long with their legs drawn up, the Judge turned them out to grass to walk on the courtgreen and hear the birds sing, and another jury was put on, and seven cases were tried, and seven men proved to be maniacs, by another lawyer, all while the first lawyer, with pointed precision, was writing out his questions. The grass jury was then led in from the fresh air and went to work on the tangled up case with renewed vigor.

Monroe Enquirer: We learn that a colored woman, Barbara Rowrie, in Anson county, died rather suddenly on last Sunday, under suspicious circumstances. Dr. A. Myers analyzed the stomach, and found that she had been poisoned. Our informant could not give us the particulars, but stated that an inquest had been held; and we will likely get the full particulars in a day or so.

Goldsboro Messenger: Several of our citizens are experimenting in tobacco growing. Mr. Arnold Borden and Mr. A. D. Speight, both have planted largely in this county. Mr. C. S. Wooten is trying it on quite an extensive scale in Lenoir county. We learn that on the 25th inst. he set out seventeen acres of the weed, making in all about 85,000 plants, and in about ten days he will have plants enough to put out as many acres more.

Reidsville News: A mass meeting of the friends of the Piedmont Narrow Gauge Railroad, will be held at Ridgeway, Henry county, Va., on Saturday, the 11th day of next month. Let all who can, attend. A number of speakers will be present.....The committee appointed to visit Richmond, to procure subscriptions to the capital stock of the Piedmont Narrow Guage Railroad, left for that place Tuesday at noon. We are glad to learn their most sanguine expectations are being realized.

The Atlanta General Conference.

To-day the ninth session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convenes in Atlanta, Ga. This is the supreme council of the church. It is composed of representatives from all the annual conferences under the jurisdiction of the M. E. Church, South. The whole number of delegates is not less than three hundred, composed, in equal numbers, of clerical and lay representatives. It is only since the war that lay representation in the conferences of this branch of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States, has been conceded. The conference will be presided over, from day to day, in turn, by Bishops Paine, Kavanaugh, Peirce, Wightman, Doggett, McTyeire, and Keene.

The General Conference being the sole law-making council of the church, and its sessions being only quadrennial, a large amount of business must necessarily devolve upon it, and prolong its session from three to four weeks. Its deliberations will be occupied, for the most part, with the election of additional bishops; the consideration of the present presiding elder system, with a view of modifying it in some points; the discussion of the existing law as to the term of the pastorate for the purpose possibly of effecting some changes; a review of the management of the Publishing House, at Nashville, Tenn.; together with the usual questions connected with legislation upon conference matters.

In addition to this work of a general nature, there is no doubt much of a local nature, prominent among which may be mentioned the memorial adopted at the last annual conference of the church in North Carolina, asking a division and formation of a new conference, with the line somewhere between Greensboro and Salisbury. Our readers are aware that at present the North Carolina Conference extends only to the summit of the Blue Ridge, the counties west of the Blue Ridge belonging to the Holston Conference. In case of a division, as proposed, these counties will be joined to the proposed new conference. When this matter was first prominently brought before the public it was fully explained in these columns, and the arguments in favor of the proposed division clearly set out. We hope the division may be made. One of the most prominent Methodists of this State, asserts that "division and a new Conference are absolutely necessary to the life and perpetuation of Methodism in Western North Carolina."

The other matter, which may be of especial local interest, is the election of new bishops. If we be correctly informed, five new bishops are to be chosen, to fill vacancies and to supply new fields of labor opened up by missionaries. Several distinguished Methodist ministers of our State have been mentioned in connection with these exalted offices; among them, Doctors Burkhead, Bobbitt, Craven, Wilson, Closs and Yates—names conspicuous in the annals of North Carolina Methodism. Each of these eminent ministers has received from his church marked recognition of his learning, piety and zeal; and their hosts of friends would be well pleased to see any one of them promoted to a Bishopric. The church in this State certainly merits recognition in this way at the hands of the General Conference.

This Conference will present statistics of the existing strength and condition of the church. No doubt a large growth will be manifested. It has been out a little over one hundred years since the pioneer Phillip Embury formed the first Methodist class organized in America. It was in 1766 at his residence in the city of New York. Eighteen years later, in 1784, the American Church was first regularly organized. In that year, Dr. Coke came to America from England as Superintendent of the Methodist Societies in this country. On the 25th of December, 1784, the sixty-one Methodist preachers laboring in the country, assembled in a general Conference at Baltimore, and formally organized the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. Dr. Coke had been instructed by Mr. Wesley to advise the Conference to elect a Bishop or Superintendent, and their choice fell upon Mr. Francis Asbury, who was ordained by Dr. Coke and the Presbytery present. Dr. Coke was recognized by the church as its bishop, and Mr. Asbury was merely chosen to be joint bishop or assistant. In due course of time, other conferences were formed, and the church began that rapid growth which has made it the most numerous if not the most powerful religious body in the United States. According to the census of 1870 the strength of the Methodist Church was as follows: 21,337 churches, 6,528,209 sittings, $69,854,121 property.

In 1844 this church was divided by questions concerning its discipline into two branches, the Northern Methodist Church, and the M. E. Church South. The latter branch of the church has now about seven hundred thousand members, extending over the entire South, and embracing Missouri.

From the Nashville Advocate we gather the following interesting statistics of the M. E. Church South: Traveling preachers, 3,439; superannuated, 282; local preachers, 5,684; white members, 759,216; colored members, 1,499; Indian members, 4,622, total ministers and members, 774,742. The colored members, for the most part, have left the Connection for the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, organized by the Methodist Bishops under the authority of the Conference—hence the smallness of the number.

The North Carolina Conference will be represented at Atlanta by the following delegates: Clerical delegates—Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, Rev. L. S. Burkhead, Rev. W. S. Black, Rev. B. Craven, Rev. J. W. North, Rev. E. A. Yates, Rev. W. H. Bobbitt. Three alternates—Dr. Closs, Rev. H. T. Hudson and Rev. W. M. Robey. Lay delegates—W. F. Kornegay, Henry Lilly, C. G. Montgomery, F. C. Robbins, O. W. Carr, T. M. Jones, and Dr. W. J. T. Miller. Alternates—J. W. Mauney, R. F. Mackett and R. L. Abernethy.

THE Florida confessions raised the question squarely, shall the title to the Presidency be tried? Charles Francis Adams, one of the most prominent of the Northern politicians who have denounced the electoral fraud, is quoted as looking with disfavor on any attempt to Mexicanize our institutions. In spite of his strong belief that Mr. Hayes was elected by fraud and is a failure in office, Mr. Adams thinks it "better to bear the ills we have than fly to others that we know not of." He says: "The establishment of a sound, permanent form of government is a very difficult thing to accomplish, and no matter how stable a government might be, the slightest confusion or crash is always sure to cause trouble and upset matters. I, therefore, am in favor of allowing matters to remain in statu quo. I have arrived at this conclusion after giving it considerable thought and study."

NEW YORK, the Empire State of the Union, takes good care of its volunteer militia, known as the National Guard, an organization very similar to the North Carolina State Guard. Last year the sum of $350,000 was appropriated by the Legislature for the maintenance of the New York National Guard. During the present year the sum of $550,000 has been appropriated for the same purpose. A few days ago, a bill appropriating $200,000 additional "for the more complete equipment of the National Guard," was passed by the New York General Assembly. The organization thus liberally provided for numbers an effective force of more than twenty thousand men—well uniformed, equipped and disciplined. The citizens of the State take great pride in it, and are lavish in their expenditures in its behalf. It supercedes entirely the necessity of the Federal Army in that State, in case of an emergency.

THE able and spirited Hernando D. Money, member of Congress from Mississippi, gave the post-belium warriors a good hit in his recent great speech. He said:

"The people of the section which I have the honor in part to represent have realized how difficult a thing it is to placate the non-combatants of the war, gentlemen whose patriotism burned fiercely yet safely around their firesides, while the clangor of conflict resounded throughout the land, to flame still higher on the forum, in the hustings, in newspapers, and official position, when gentle peace, white-winged, brooded like a dove over the united sections."

MR. MONEY stated in his speech on Claims, the other day, that the cotton tax took from the South in four years the vast sum of $83,000,000. To repair the damage sustained by this direct assault upon our great industry, an income tax, which would if necessity fall most heavily on the North, should be imposed.

THINGS look more war-like in Europe than ever. The movements of the various powers forebode imminent war. There are those who still cling to hopes of peace, but their numbers are evidently dwindling. All the indications point to hostilities. For details we refer our readers to the telegraphic column

THE "National Party" has grown so strong in the Northwest that the Republicans are deeply alarmed. Their strength is no longer to be despised. They are working with energy, and may yet become a troublesome factor in American politics. Their numbers are drawn mostly from the Radical ranks.

OUR Washington correspondence will, for the remainder of the present session, be only weekly. Beyond what we get by telegraph and from the papers published at the Capital, there is little of interest to report.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S

discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

BESIDES BEING THE BEST HAIR DRESSING EVER PRODUCED, LYON'S KATHAIRON WILL POSITIVELY PREVENT GRAYNESS, AND WILL RESTORE NEW HAIR TO BALD HEADS, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair, and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and simple vegetable lotion, intended to restore it by natural means to its original growth and reinvigorate it. It is splendidly perfumed, and the admiration of ladies and delight of gentlemen. No toilet dressing known. No lady or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Thine Always.

The autumn wind is moaning in the leaves,
And the long grass is rustling on my grave;
Ah, would you have me think your heart now grieves
For her you would not save?

For I am dead; know you not I am dead?
Why will you haunt me in my grave to-night,
Standing above and listening overhead,
Where I am buried deep and out of sight?

Have you not wine and music in your home,
And her fair form, and eyes so pure and proud
With love of you? and wherefore do you come
To vex me, lying silent in my shroud?

Seek your new love! She calls you, and the tears
Are warm on her pale face, and her young breast
Is full of doubt and sorrow—for she hears
Low whispered words that startle her from rest.

In from the night! the storm begins to stir.
I will be near, and ghostly eyes shall see
How you will kiss her lips, and say to her;
"Thine always, love," as once you said to me.

(William Winter.

GENERAL NOTES.

The Queen of Greece is said to be greatly admired by her subjects for her beauty and her simple and charming manners.

Ex-Congressman Vance, who was "missing" recently, has reached Cincinnati in charge of a friend. There is said to be no doubt of his insanity.

Two tailors of Lyons, France, have had a duel in regard to the cut of a pair of pantaloons. Both were much frightened, but neither were hurt.

A Chinaman fell into a flume in Placerville, Cal., was swept with frightful velocity through a tunnel 800 feet long, and dropped forty feet into a canon, but he was not much hurt.

The young Prince Louis Napoleon, who lately drew a number subjecting him to service in the French Army, has obtained exemption according to French law, as the only son of a widow.

A rich but parsimonious old gentleman, on being taken to task for his uncharitableness, said: "True, I don't give much; but it you only knew how it hurts me when I give anything, you wouldn't wonder."

Washington Star: The daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, who is in her fifteenth year, made a runaway match Sunday night with a dashing young ex-clerk of the Navy department, named Handy, of this city.

Creosote has been found highly curative in even advanced cases of consumption. M. M. Bouchard and Gimbert report having cured twenty-seven per cent, and improved thirty-one per cent, of their phthisical patients by using absolutely pure creosote combined with gentian alcohol and Malaga wine.

A stranger seeing an Irishman leaning against a post, watching a funeral procession coming out of a brick house at his side, spoke to him, when the following dialogue ensued: "Is that a funeral?" "Yes, sir, I'm thinkin it is." "Anybody of distinction?" "I reckon it is, sir." "Who is it that died?" "The gentleman in the coffin, sir."

Frog culture is the latest Western industry, and is being systematically carried on in Minnesota. It is a simple process, consisting chiefly in the protection of eggs and tadpoles from birds and other enemies by means of wire screens. The product thus far reported amounts to 3,000 dozen legs, of which two-thirds have been shipped to St. Louis, where they bring an average of 20 cents per dozen.

Dr. Martin, president of the Chinese Imperial College at Peking, has, in the past few years, translated and published in the Chinese tongue—Wheaton's Elements of International Law, De Marten's Guide Diplomatique, a considerable portion of the French code, Bluntschli's Volkerrecht, and Woolsey's Introduction to International Law. These text-books have the sanction of the Chinese Foreign Office, and are widely studied.

The sentinels at the English War-Office, being short-service men, did not know the Duke of Cambridge by sight, so a sergeant was put to point out to them his Royal Highness. One day, the sergeant had been called up-stairs, and on the Duke appearing at the door the sentinel, instead of saluting, ordered him not to loiter about. Down came the sergeant, and apologized for the sentinel, who, he said, did not know his Royal Highness. "I thought that there was not a cab-driver in London who did not know my back," said the Commander-in-Chief.

The late Lord Leitrim, says the World, of London, was a man of strong likes and dislikes, and one of his chief antipathies was a horror of goats. An old woman, one of the tenants, had a favorite goat, which he espied one day and made her bring up to him by the side of the road. Without a word of warning he took out his knife and cut its throat. The woman, as far as she dared, reproached him with his ruthless act, whereupon he gave her a $20 note, saying, "Take this to buy a cow with." It was characteristic of the man; hard, unyielding, easily moved to anger, but as swift to make amends, and always inexorably just.

N. Y. Tribune: Mr. Edison, as a young telegraph operator at Memphis, was known for the quaint drawing with which, in odd leisure moments, he illustrated the Southern press reports. One habit was to convert the tails of his g's and y's into faces, with the most ludicrous expressions imaginable. Another habit was to draw a railroad curve around a hill, with a train of cars at full speed; on the first car was a T. on the second Y, and so on until Tyler, the signature to the report, was spelled out, and on the last car, barely perceptible around the curve, was "30," or finis. This continued for some time, until a Memphis editor published a paragraph praising in the highest terms the beauty of the sketches, but objecting to them on the ground that the printers took up too much time in admiring them, and in trying to find appropriate cuts to represent them. This was the last of the "illustrated press reports," as Edison was exceedingly sensitive,

LEE'S PREPARED
AGRICULTURAL LIME.
To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $500—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:
$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per
TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.
I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.
Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:
I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Fraps will have Bock Beer today.

——All things were dull yesterday, business, fun.

——There were no cases in the Mayor's Court yesterday.

——April, the "mother of months," has passed away.

——It is now time for liquor-dealers to renew their licenses.

——The rains in many portions of the State have been very heavy.

——There will probably be a church festival this week at Metropolitan Hall.

——The receipts of cotton in our market yesterday were 58 bales. The market was firm.

——The Register of Deeds is sending to Teachers, the circular relating to the Sate Normal School at Chapel Hill.

——We learn that the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church intend having another Dime Party at an early day.

——Preparations are now being made, this time in earnest, it is to be hoped, to hold that much talked of "baby-show."

——The citizens of Hickory will give a large ball to the editors of the State when the Press Convention Assembles there in July.

——The placards of an excursion from this city to Goldsboro, by colored troops of the State Guard, are posted in various places.

——A pleasure in prospect. There will be a "German" at the National Hotel on Thursday evening. It will doubtless be largely attended.

——The "Lee Light Infantry," of Chester, S. C,, have asked and been granted permission to enter this State for the purpose of participating in a pic nic at Gastonia, Gaston county.

——Letters are held at the P. O. addressed to Geo. F. Hayes and Hettie Jones, city, with revenue instead of postage stamps thereon. Also letters with insufficient postage to Miss Delia Dam, city, and R. Barnes, Swan Station, Harnett county.

——W. H. Crow, General Agent of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, leave this morning by the R. & G. R. R. to pay $20,760.25 losses recently sustained by his company in Halifax county. So large an amount so promptly paid, must be a great relief in these hard times.

——The impression is prevalent among our people that the Bankrupt Act has passed both houses of Congress. This is a mistake. It has passed the Senate, was then sent to the House, where it was amended. The bill was therefore sent back to the Senate for the concurrence of that body.

Testimonial to Maj. Gulick.

Major W. B. Gulick, who has so long and carefully officiated as leader of the choir of Christ church, was on Sunday last, made the recipient of a fitting tesumonial, in recognition of his pains-taking labor of love in taking charge of the choir. It consisted of a handsome set of solid silver spoons in an elegant casket. On this is the following inscription: "Presented to Maj W. B. Gulick by the Rector and Sunday School of Christ Church, Easter, 1878." On each of the spoons is engraved the letter "G," in German text. The testimonial was presented by Col. W. E. Anderson, Superintendent of the Sunday School, on Sunday last, with appropriate complimentary remarks. To these the recipient replied, returning thanks for the token of the esteem of the donors, and expressing the pleasure this manifestation of good-will on the part of all connected with the Sunday School gave him. With their assistance and co-operation, he looked for further improvement in the music of the Sunday School and of the church.

The Old North State.

From a letter to a gentleman of our city from a business man in New York, we are permitted to make the following extract:

"The volume of business from the South has not been as great as we could have wished, yet we have no cause to complain, as we are busily engaged in duplicating many of our lines to satisfy the order demand. In this connection I would say that the demand for goods in North Carolina has kept pace with that of other States, and still better. her merchants stand at the head of the list for business capacity, integrity, and promptness in their engagements."

Mexican Dollars.

The Treasury Department has recently received a number of letters from different parties in Texas and other Southern States, inquiring at what rate Mexican silver dollars are receivable at the United States Treasury, from which it is inferred that these coins are being freely imported from Mexico and placed in circulation. As they are not a legal tender in the United States, persons accepting them at their nominal or tale value, do so at their own risk. Their value as bullion is at present ninety-three cents.

Cotton Compress.

Some mention has been made of the establishment of a cotton compress in our city. The cotton business here is now of such magnitude as to render necessary the use of a compress. The cotton men endorse the project. With one of these machines a bale of cotton may be compressed into one third its original size. The trouble saved in hauling, as well as the gain in space of storage are only two reason for the use of the compress.

Wake County.

During the month of April there were registered in the office of the Register of Deeds instruments, including lien bonds, chattel and other mortgages, deeds, etc., numbering 336.

The Railroad Excursion.

Major J M Robinson, Major Jno C Winder, Governor Vance, Treasurer Worth and others, left yesterday for the mountains, as stated in yesterday's NEWS. Speaking of their trip, its objects and purposes, the Charlotte Observer, says: "The object of the excursion on the part of the railroad men, (Gov. Vance and party being merely invited to accompany them), is to test the capacity of the various roads from Norfolk to Henry's for a fast schedule, which it is proposed to inaugurate during the coming summer. The excursion train will start from Norfolk with a view of making Charlotte in about fourteen hours. They expect to come from Raleigh in about six hours and a half, and from Hamlet, the junction with the Carolina Central, in about two hours. This is about the time of the proposed new schedule, and should the trip with the excursion train be as successful as anticipated, there is little doubt that the fast train will be put on as soon as the summer travel begins. It is understood that the proposed fast train will run through from Norfolk to Charlotte without change, and will run independent of other passenger trains on the Carolina Central and Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line railroads."

The University Normal School.

The State Board of Education has just sent to the County Board of Education, for distribution, circulars giving the programme of the University Normal School for 1878. The School begins June 18th, and continues six weeks. It will be held in the University buildings at Chapel Hill. Prof. Ladd is Superintendent. Prof. McIver, and six or seven other instructors will assist. Pecuniary assistance will be given to those teachers who are unable to pay their way. Those desiring assistance should apply to President Battle, at Chapel Hill, by 1st June next. He will lay the applications before the Board. The Railroads will pass for half price. Atlantic Hotel, Beaufort.

Dr. G. K. Bagby, Proprietor of the Atlantic Hotel, Beaufort, was in our city yesterday, in the interest of his summer resort, and making arrangements for a summer excursion ticket. He has engaged Slater's Band for the music of the season, and having made extensive improvements in the Hotel, Summer visitors are promised superior attractions and accommodations. A new suspension roof has been thrown over the ball-room, and the sea-front enclosed by the addition of a glass front with movable sashes. The Atlantic will open the first of June, and a rare good time is promised its guests for the season of 1878. The price of round trip ticket will be lower than ever before. See the advertisement elsewhere.

May Day.

This festive day is almost universally observed, with appropriate jollity and sports, and has never lost its hold upon the affections of the Anglo-Saxon race. The first day of Spring's last month, it ushers in one of the loveliest seasons of the year. Spring has now lost a sense of chilliness, which oft before came over her softest moods, and henceforth is constant in her warmth and brightness.

The formalities formerly used in the celebration of the day were very curious. All were festivities in the open air, as became the time. To us has descended the crowning of the May Queen, with its attendant ceremonies.

May, too, is called the month of birds. All these are now in full song. The field are variegated with flowers in bloom, while the air is redolent of their sweets.

New Goods Received at

GREECH'S

BY EVERY TRAIN.

I am now receiving my Spring Stock bought within the last ten days in a depressed market after the rush of business was over and goods had fallen. In fact I bought them at hard pan and panic prices, and can safely say that never in the history of the dry goods business have I been better prepared to sell good so uniformly cheap. And so as to give my customers a bird's eye view, I will quote a few prices:

50,000 Yards

NEW AND HANDSOME

SPRING PRINTS,

From 5 to 7 cents.

10,000 Yards New and handsome

PRINTED UNION LAWNS,

At 10 cents, worth 15 cents;

10,000 YARDS PRINTED CORDED LAWNS, at 10 cent, cheap at 15 cents;

5,000 yards Solid French Grenadine at 7½ cents, cost 20 cents to import;

5,000 yards Poplin Lustres, new and handsome shades, at 5 cents, worth 25 cents.

New and handsome styles of finer Dress Goods at correspondingly low prices. Three yards White Corded Pique for 20 cents, and one yard thrown in extra; 3 pair White Hose for 25 cents, and one pair thrown in extra; Ladies Embroidered Collars at 5 cents each, cheaper than 15 cent; Linen Collars, 3 for 10 cents, and one thrown in extra; Ladies Cloth Gaiters, to arrive in a few days, at 50 cents. These prices ought to unwrap the the string from around the purse stricken purse, and come to Greech's.
